

Kuju Hanakoen Map

Scent spread to the Flower Village in Kuju

Nekodake (1,433meters) Takadake (1,592meters) Nakadake (1,506meters) Eboshidake (1,337meters) Kijimadake (1,337meters) Oogigahana (1,698m) Hizengajo (1,685m) Mt.Hossho (1,675m) Mt.kuju (1,787m) Mt.inaboshi (1,774m) Mt.taisen (1,747m)

Kuju Highland is located in the heart of Kyushu. It is where you find Kuju Flower Park with 220,000 square meters of rounds. From spring through to autumn over 500 kinds and 5 million plants will come to bloom. Walking through forest areas, flower fields and wild flower areas you can enjoy a range of breathtaking scenery to feel relaxed and rejuvenated.

Forest Areas

Warm all year around where you can enjoy plants and flowers such as Begonia and Fuchsia.

Parantica sita will be around in Spring and Autumn.

Between mid July and August, the forest will be filled with deep colours of Hydrangea.

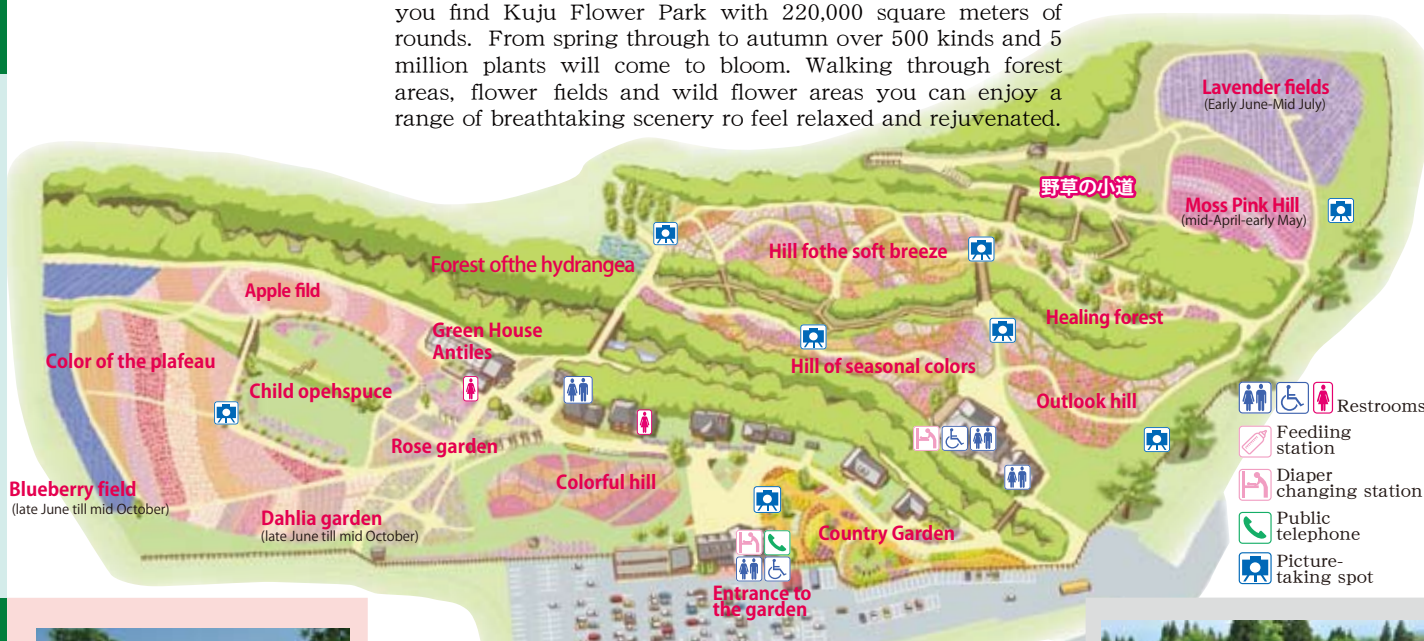

Green House

Warm all year around where you can enjoy plants and flowers such as Begonia and Fuchsia.

Fruit field

From August till September, you can enjoy blueberry picking. There are over 11 types of blueberries.

Flower fields

Flower seasons may change slightly due to weather and.

Phlox subulata (late April till early May)

Tulips (mid April till early May)

Poppy (late April till late May)

Nemophila (late April till early June)

Sunflowers (late July till early August)

Garden areas

The Country Garden offers you various plants and trees in all seasons including a perennial. Rose Garden filled with great scent and colours in spring (the end of May till Mid June) and autumn (The end of September till Mid October) when over 350 types and 3500 roses come into blossom.

Salvia (early September till mid October)

Cosmos (late September till mid October)

Assorted spring flowers (late April till late May)

Lavender (late June till mid July)